

Guide the completing conference-specific information on Data & Policy ScholarOne

Please follow these steps to ensure your full paper is reviewed for both the Data for Policy 2026 (DfP'26) Conference and the Data & Policy journal simultaneously through the integrated review process.

1. To submit via the Data & Policy ScholarOne system, please select the most appropriate article type from the list (Research Article, Translational Article, Commentary, Data Paper, Contested Proposition, Practitioner Cases, Data for Policy Report, Editorial)

Step 1: Type, Title, & Abstract

Title: Please provide a concise, informative and grammatically correct title, including determiner (e.g. "A participatory approach for empowering community engagement in data governance: The Monash Net Zero Precinct")

* Type

CHOICE	TYPE
<input type="radio"/>	Research Article
<input type="radio"/>	Translational Article
<input type="radio"/>	Commentary
<input type="radio"/>	Data Paper
<input type="radio"/>	Contested Proposition
<input type="radio"/>	Practitioner Cases
<input type="radio"/>	Data for Policy Report
<input type="radio"/>	Editorial

2. If you are submitting to one of the standard focus areas, please select it from the list.

* Standard Focus Areas

Select...

Minimum entries for attribute Standard Focus Areas not entered. Enter one attribute at a time prior to clicking the (+) plus sign.

* Standard Focus Areas

✓ Select...

- Area 1: Digital & Data-Driven Transformations in Governance
- Area 2: Data Technologies and Analytics for Policy and Governance
- Area 3: Policy & Literacy for Data
- Area 4: Ethics, Equity & Trustworthiness
- Area 5: Algorithmic Governance
- Area 6: Global Challenges & Dynamic Threats
- None

Ω Special Characters

3. In the Conferences and Collections section, for the first question, please select "Data for Policy 2026".

Conferences and Collections

* Does the submission relate to an edition of the Data for Policy Conference? If so, please select from the list below. If not, please select N/A:

Select...

* Does the submission relate to an edition of the Data for Policy Conference? If so, please select from the list below. If not, please select N/A:

✓ Select...

N/A

Data for Policy 2026

Data for Policy 2025

4. Next, if your submission is related to a special track, please select the relevant special track from the list. If it is not related to a special track, please select N/A.

* Is the submission related to a special track at the Data for Policy Conference? If so, please select from the list below. If not, please select N/A:

Select...

5. Finally, you will have the option to associate your paper with one of the ongoing special collections in the Data & Policy journal. If you wish to do so, please select the appropriate collection from the drop-down list. Otherwise, select N/A and continue with your submission.

* ONGOING: Are you submitting to an existing Data & Policy Special Collection? If so, please select from the list below. If not, please select N/A:

Select...

* ONGOING: Are you submitting to an existing Data & Policy Special Collection? If so, please select from the list below. If not, please select N/A:

✓ Select...

N/A

Big Data Text Analytics for Policy

Counting What Matters: Sex-Aggregated Data and Gender Statistics

Democratic Decision Making in Times of AI

Emerging Data and Policy Challenges to Digital Rights

Generative AI for Sound Decision-makings: Challenges and Opportunities

Governance of Health Data for AI Innovation

Law, Regulation and Technology: Healthy, Safe, and Sustainable Smart Cities

Perspectives on the Societal Impact of Digital Twins

Save

Save & Continue >

Data for Policy 2026 (DfP'26)

Governance of/with AI: Implications for Data, Infrastructure, and Tech Sovereignty

08-10 September 2026 📍 Universitat Pompeu Fabra, Barcelona, Spain

Universitat
Pompeu Fabra
Barcelona

#dataforpolicy2026 | @dataforpolicy

