1 Section heading

The main text is Times New Roman 10 point with 12 point line spacing. Headings and subheadings separate the major sections of your paper and are numbered. Citations follow APA 6th edition style: for one author, give the last name and year (Moreno, 1953); for two authors, use an ampersand (Borgatti & Everett, 2005); and for three or more authors, use et al. throughout (Doe et al., 2012).

1.1 Subsection heading

The text below a second-level heading begins without indentation. This is example text in 10 point type. This is example text in 10 point type.
